

Wind Measurements

What does it teach? Add

Description: Students are each hand-held anemometers which they can use to measure wind speed in front of fans of various sizes. They can also measure the wind speed of their breath, the natural surrounding breeze, and other things.

Darryl helps children measure wind speed.

A closeup of the wind sensor instrument.